Report by new site stewards (various)

Each site steward reported on what they hope to accomplish this winter at your site.

Questions and discussion

Alex Colling again offered to teach a chainsaw safety class. The structure will be 2-3 hours of classroom instruction, followed by hands-on practice at Alexander savanna.

Heidi and Bob M reported on their “safety sheets” all work parties leaders should have on hand. It should include phone numbers for ambulances, fire departments; and the location of the nearest hospital.
